

First Presbyterian Church

2012 Bible Conference

“Leviticus: the third book of the Bible famous for its tediousness and its ability to take down any earnest effort to read all the way through the Bible. In our day, the book of Leviticus stands as a major stumbling block for the religiously skeptical and an embarrassment for the devout. But, if we can make some sense of the message behind this book, it means that we have to listen to every inch of the Bible's revelation to mankind. Truth be told: the book is the scaffolding of the message of Jesus. Miss this book, and the majority of Jesus' words remain unintelligible.”

- Les Newsom

Les Newsom is Area Coordinator for RUF Midsouth, which oversees the campus works in Mississippi, Arkansas, Alabama, and west Tennessee. Les is a native of Memphis and a graduate of Reformed Theological Seminary. He founded the RUF ministry at the University of Memphis. In 1999, the Newsoms moved to RUF at Ole Miss, where he was campus minister until June of 2011. Les co-authored The Enduring Community: Embracing the Priority of the Church. Les and his wife Ginger have three children.

Friday, February 24
Session 1, 6:30 pm

Saturday, February 25
Men's Breakfast, 7:00 am
Church-wide Dinner, 5:30 pm
Session 2, 6:30 pm

Sunday, February 26
Session 3, 10:20 am
Session 4, 5:00 pm

First Presbyterian Church

603 Smythe Street
Kosciusko, Mississippi 39090
662-289-2435
fpckosciusko.org