

My Family - Is it creating or meeting the needs of my children? What,
exactly, does my
child really need?

Join us on Thursday, October 27, from 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. in the Mary Thornton Room at First Presbyterian Church as Margie Newman explores answers from Scripture to these critical questions every parent should be asking. All moms, grandmothers, and women involved in the lives of families with children are encouraged to come. Childcare provided. Invite a friend.

Margie's Bio:

Margie Newman, a graduate of Columbia International University, came to French Camp Academy in 1963 as houseparent with her husband, Ralph. Over the years, she taught Bible and Christian Family Living in the FCA high school and was founding director of Camp of the Rising Son for 20 years. During that time, she served as CCI/USA Section President, Senior Consultant for Health and Safety, and as CCI/USA national board member. Currently, she is serving as a volunteer for French Camp Academy. After 35 years of marriage, her husband, Ralph, went to be with the Lord in 1998. Together they had three children: Tami, Kim and Culley. Today twelve grandchildren lovingly call her "Mimi"!
