THE LORD'S DAY

10:50 A.M.

"The Church is not a theological classroom. It is a conversion, confession, repentance, reconciliation, forgiveness, and sanctification center, where flawed people place their trust in Christ, gather to know and love him better, and learn to love others as he has designed. The Church is messy and inefficient, but it is God's wonderful mess—the place where he radically transforms hearts and lives."

Confession of Sin

Almighty God our Heavenly Father, we ask your forgiveness of our many sins. Like your people of old we have too often complained against you and your people. We have failed to trust you; we have failed to believe you; we have failed to live in conformity with your law, and even our best works are imperfect and defiled by sin.

Have mercy upon us, we pray.

Cleanse and purify us that henceforth we may live in a manner worthy of your unfailing love and bring forth the fruit of gratitude, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Assurance of Pardoning Grace

1 John 3:1-2

See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is.

Hymn

How Deep the Father's Love for Us

WORDS AND MUSIC BY STUART TOWNEND

How deep the Father's love for us, how vast beyond all measure
That he should give his only Son to make a wretch his treasure.

How great the pain of searing loss. The Father turns his face away
As wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.

Behold the Man upon a cross, my sin upon his shoulders.

Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers.

It was my sin that held him there until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has brought me life. I know that it is finished.

I will not boast of anything: no gifts, no pow'r, no wisdom.
But I will boast in Jesus Christ: his death and resurrection.

Why should I gain from his reward? I cannot give an answer.
But this I know with all my heart: his wounds have paid my ransom.

CHOIR

Every promise we can make, every prayer and step of faith,
Every difference we will make is only by His grace.

Every mountain we will climb, every ray of hope we shine,
Every blessing left behind is only by His grace.

Grace alone which God supplies, strength unknown He will provide.
Christ in us, our Cornerstone, we will go forth in grace alone.

Every soul we long to reach, every heart we hope to teach,
Everywhere we share His peace is only by His grace.

Every loving word we say, every tear we wipe away,
Every sorrow turned to praise is only by His grace.

Notes about the Service

Greeting: The very first words of the oldest Christian liturgies we possess are these: "He is risen!" And the congregation joyfully responds, "He is risen indeed!" From now through Ascension Sunday (May 24) we will use this greeting at the beginning of the service.

Professions of Faith: Taking vows before the Lord is an element of worship (Deut. 6:13; Isa. 19:21; Eccl. 5:4-5). We rejoice today in receiving our own covenant children whom the Session has admitted to the Lord's Table on basis of their profession of faith in Christ.

"Thank God you've come!"

*As Benedictine monks greeted strangers who came to their door, we welcome all visitors to our worship services today.
We hope you find yourself drawn closer to Christ today.
Please fill out the black registration pad located at the end of your pew, so we will have a record of your visit.
We look forward to seeing you again soon.*

50 Days of Prayer books, Justice, Mercy & Truth, by Mike Ross are here. They are located on the desk in the church office and are $7.00 each. Please leave a check or money in the envelope provided.

Mission Sunday, May 17: Wes Baker, Peru Mission.
