THE LORD'S DAY

10:50 A.M.

"Your worst days are never so bad that you are beyond the reach of God's grace. And your best days are never so good that you are beyond the need of God's grace... Pharisee-type believers unconsciously think they have earned God's blessing through their behavior. Guilt-laden believers are quite sure they have forfeited God's blessing through their lack of discipline or their disobedience. Both have forgotten the meaning of grace because they have moved away from the gospel and have slipped into a performance relationship with God."

~Jerry Bridges, The Disciplines of Grace

Confession of Faith

From Colossians 1:13-20

We believe God has rescued us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son of his love, in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins.

We believe Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.

We believe Jesus is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from among the dead, that in all things he may have the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in him all the fullness should dwell, and by him to reconcile all things to himself, by him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of his cross.

Hymn

How Deep the Father's Love for Us

WORDS AND MUSIC BY STUART TOWNEND

How deep the Father's love for us, how vast beyond all measure
That he should give his only Son to make a wretch his treasure.

How great the pain of searing loss. The Father turns his face away
As wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.

Behold the Man upon a cross, my sin upon his shoulders.

Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers.

It was my sin that held him there until it was accomplished;

His dying breath has brought me life. I know that it is finished.

I will not boast of anything: no gifts, no pow'r, no wisdom.

But I will boast in Jesus Christ: his death and resurrection.

Why should I gain from his reward? I cannot give an answer.

But this I know with all my heart: his wounds have paid my ransom.

For the Beauty of the Earth

CHOIR

Folliott Pierpoint and Conrad Kocher

For the beauty of the earth, for the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth over and around us lies:
Lord of all, to Thee we raise this our song of grateful praise.

For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above,
for all gentle thoughts and mild:

Lord of all, to Thee we raise this our song of grateful praise.

For the church that evermore lifteth holy hands above,
Offring up on ev'ry shore her pure sacrifice of love:

Lord of all, to Thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

Notes about the Service

How Deep the Father's Love for Us comes from the pen of contemporary British songwriter Stuart Townend, who explained, "I'd been meditating on the cross, and in particular what it cost the Father to give up his beloved Son to a torturous death on a cross. And what was my part in it? Not only was it my sin that put him there, but if I'd lived at that time, it would probably have been me in that crowd, shouting with everyone else 'crucify him'. It just makes his sacrifice all the more personal, all the more amazing, and all the more humbling."

Count Nicolaus Ludwig von Zinzendorf (1700-1760), founder of the Moravian Brethren, authored Jesus, Thy Blood and Righteousness. He founded a community of earnest Christians called Herrnhut ("The Lord's Watch"). In 1727 the community started a 'round the clock "prayer watch" that lasted unbroken for 100 years. There were about 300 persons in the community at first, and various ones covenanted to pray for one of the 24 hours in the day. In 1792, 65 years later, with the lamp of prayer still burning, the little community had sent out 300 missionaries to the unreached peoples of the West Indies, Greenland, Lapland, Turkey, and North America.

O Love That Will Not Let Me Go, rich in poetic imagery, calls us to place our confidence not in our weak love for God but in God's strong love for us. Looking back over his life, marred by blindness in his twenties, Matheson wrote that his was "an obstructed life, a circumscribed life...but a life of quenchless hopefulness, a life which has beaten persistently against the cage of circumstance, and which even at the time of abandoned work has said not "Good night" but "Good morning."

Report from Reformed Theological Seminary, Wed. May

13: Dr. Bob Penny of RTS Jackson will be here to give a report Wednesday evening in the Mary Thornton Room at 6:00 pm. No one can adequately measure the impact that RTS has had in the U.S. and around the world. The partnership between FPC and RTS goes back to its formative years in the early 1960's. Erskine Jackson was among those burdened with the need for such a seminary. There were even discussions about locating the seminary right here in Kosciusko! Come hear Dr. Penny on Wednesday evening, and you'll be very encouraged about the ways that RTS is fulfilling its mission.
