THE LORD'S DAY

10:50 A.M.

"We make the foundation of faith the gratuitous promise, because in it faith properly consists...Faith begins with the promise, rests in it, and ends in it. For in God faith seeks life: a life which is not found in commandments or declarations of penalties, but in the promise of mercy, and only in a gratuitous promise. For a conditional promise that sends us back to our own works does not promise life unless we find it in ourselves...Therefore the apostle bears this witness to the gospel: that it is the word of faith (Romans 10:8)."

Prelude

Call to Worship

Psalms 145:8-10,13

Minister: The LORD is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in love.

The LORD is good to all; he has compassion on all he has made.

People: All you have made will praise you, O LORD;
your saints will extol you.

Minister: Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
and your dominion endures through all generations.

*Hymn 4 All Praise to God, Who Reigns Above

MIT FREUDEN

*Prayer of Adoration

Confession of Sin

from Deuteronomy 10:16-19

Minister: Circumcise your hearts, therefore,
and do not be stiff-necked any longer.

For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality and accepts no bribes.

He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow,
and loves the alien, giving him food and clothing.

And you are to love those who are aliens,
for you yourselves were aliens in Egypt.

People: Almighty Father, God of gods and Lord of lords,
Father to the fatherless, Husband to the widow,
Defender of the helpless, Judge of all the earth,
have mercy on us.

We have not helped the oppressed,
even though you freed us.

We have not bound up the broken
even though you healed us.

We have not forgiven others, even though you forgave us.

We withhold kindness from the needy,
even though you freely gave us your own Son.

We are without excuse, but not without hope.
By your power and grace, account our sins to Jesus' bloody death and amend our ways by the power of his glorious resurrection. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Isaiah 44:21-22

Remember these things, O Jacob, and Israel, for you are my servant.

I formed you; you are my servant;

O Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

I have blotted out your transgressions like a cloud and your sins like the morning mist.

Return to me, for I have redeemed you.

How Deep the Father's Love for Us

CHOIR

Stuart Townend

How deep the Father's love for us, how vast beyond all measure
That he should give his only Son to make a wretch his treasure.
How great the pain of searing loss. The Father turns his face away
As wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.

Behold the Man upon a cross, my sin upon his shoulders.
Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers.
It was my sin that held him there until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has brought me life. I know that it is finished.

I will not boast of anything: no gifts, no pow'r, no wisdom.
But I will boast in Jesus Christ: his death and resurrection.
Why should I gain from his reward? I cannot give an answer.
But this I know with all my heart: his wounds have paid my ransom.

Notes about the Service

Remember that as you sing, Jesus sings with you. "I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise" (Heb. 2:12 citing Psa. 22:22, 25). The author of Hebrews pictures Jesus singing with us when we sing the praises of God! Can anything be more wonderful than the thought that Jesus gathers for worship with us and sings from the same hymn book! So, think about what you sing: "Brothers, do not be children in your thinking. Be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature" (1 Cor. 14:20). Read the words of the hymn or Psalm carefully and make them your own. Don't turn around and watch others, or check who is present and who is not! You are singing to the Lord.

"Thank God you've come!"

*As Benedictine monks greeted strangers who came to their door,
we welcome all visitors to our worship services today.*

We hope you find yourself drawn closer to Christ today.

Please fill out the black registration pad located at the end of your pew, so we will have a record of your visit.

We look forward to seeing you again soon.
