THE LORD'S DAY

10:20 a.m.

Because the gospel removes both fear and pride, people should get along inside the church who could never get along outside.

Because it points us to a man who died for his enemies, the gospel creates relationships of service rather than of selfishness.

Because the gospel calls us to holiness, the people of God live in loving bonds of mutual accountability and discipline.

Thus the gospel creates a human community radically different from any society around it.

We can take any sorrow, any loss, any fear, any pain to God's Word. We can ask any question, as Job did. We can hurl any grief to God in prayer, as Job did. And at the end of our search, we will find Christ and comfort beyond our expectation." Books are $15 each. Call Lynda, 290-0123, for more information or to order a book.

A Praying Life: Connecting with God in a Distracting World

Prayer is so hard that most of us don't pray unless an illness or a public setting demands it. Prayerlessness marks the lives of too many Christians. As a result, our lives are marked by fear, anxiety, joylessness and spiritual laziness. Join us for this honest, realistic, deep and wise encouragement to cultivate a vibrant prayer life. You can buy a copy of A Praying Life from the church office for $10.00.

A new session of GriefShare begins Thursday, January 13 at 6:30 pm. If you or someone you know has lost a loved one, please call us to find out more information about this seminar/support group.

FPC members, could you help with:

- hosting and refreshments for the weekly meetings
- as a group facilitator, or
- running the weekly DVD presentation?

If so, contact Teresa Paton (289-1753).
