THE LORD'S DAY

10:20 a.m.

One of the ways we sometimes neglect Jesus' work in our lives is what you might call "Emmaus Road" experiences with Jesus. Remember how Jesus appeared to two of his followers after the Resurrection—walking with them, talking with them, and breaking bread with them—without them being fully aware of his presence. Many of us have a tendency to watch and wait expectantly for Jesus to appear in our lives dramatically, even to the extent that we do not notice that he is walking with us, teaching us, shaping us, even in the mundane experiences of our lives, and in the regular act of worship.

Confession of Sin

From 1 John 1:0; Psalm 41:4; Isaiah 55:1-3; Psalm 63:1; Luke 18:13

Leader: Brothers and sisters, God's Word tells us that, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

All: O Lord, be gracious to us; heal our souls, for we have sinned against you!

Leader: The Lord calls: "Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price."

All: We spend our money for that which is not Bread and we labor for that which does not satisfy.

Leader: "Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food."

All: We turn our ears away from you. We refuse to come to you. We do not hear, and our souls do not live.

Leader: "Come to me, and I will make with you an everlasting Covenant—my steadfast, sure love."

All: O God, you are my God; earnestly I will seek you.

Leader: Our souls thirst for you.

All: God, be merciful to me, the sinner.

Assurance of Pardon

Isaiah 55:6-7

"Seek the Lord while he may be found; call upon him while he is near;
let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts;
let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
