Hymn

In Christ Alone
Keith Getty & Stuart Townend

In Christ alone my hope is found; He is my light, my strength, my song;
This cornerstone, this solid ground,
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease!
My comforter, my all in all—here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone, who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones He came to save.

Till on that cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied;
For every sin on Him was laid—here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground His body lay, Light of the world by darkness slain;
Then bursting forth in glorious day, up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory, sin's curse has lost its grip on me;
For I am His and He is mine—bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death—this is the power of Christ in me;
From life's first cry to final breath, Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man, can ever pluck me from His hand;
Till He returns or calls me home—here in the power of Christ I'll stand.

Offering Surely He Has Borne Our Griefs CHOIR

Text from Isaiah 53
Music by John Purifoy

Who has believed what we have heard,
And to whom has the Lord been revealed?
He grew up before him like a young plant,
Like a root growing out of dry ground.
He had no form or beauty that we should wish to look at Him;
He was despised, and rejected — a Man of Sorrows known to grief.

Surely He has borne our griefs and carried with Him our sorrows;
Yet we did esteem Him stricken, even smitten by God and afflicted.
Surely He has borne our griefs — He was wounded for our transgressions;
He was bruised for our iniquities—
With His stripes we are healed, by His wounds we are now made whole.

All we like sheep have gone astray,
We have turned ev'ry one to his own way.
And the Lord has laid on Him the iniquity,
The iniquity of us all.

He Is Risen!

TEXT: ERIC SCHUMMACHER, 2004
MUSIC: LASST UNS ERFREUEN

*O! Let the nations sing the fame of Christ the Lamb who once was slain!
He is risen! He is risen!
Now we await the coming day when all those raised in Christ will say:
Give him glory! Give him glory! He is risen! He is risen!
Hallelujah!"*

You asked...

NOTE: Some of the questions submitted at the April 17 assembly can be answered in a few sentences. Such questions will be answered in the bulletin in upcoming weeks.

Q. How does a fund become "designated?"

A. A fund becomes "designated" by an act of the Session. "Designated" funds are created by the Session for specific purposes or special short-term projects outside the regular operating budget. For example, if funds are being raised for an upcoming mission trip, Session may create a "Designated Special Fund" to track giving and fund-raising, as well as expenditures related to that trip. Other examples would be Faith Promise, scholarship giving for students at PDS and, and special offerings for our annual World Mission Conference and Bible Conference expenses.
