Pentecost Sunday

THE LORD'S DAY 10:20 a.m.

The great privilege prophesied of the gospel age, which would make the New Testament church more glorious than that of the Old, was the wonderful pouring out of the promised Holy Spirit on all believers. This was the good wine which was kept to the last (Isa. 35:7; 44:3; Joel 2:28; Ezek. 11:19; 36:27)...There is no good that we receive from God but it is brought to us and wrought in us by the Holy Spirit. Nor is there in us any good towards God, any faith, love, obedience to his will, but what we are enabled to do by the Holy Spirit. For in us, that is in our flesh, there is no good thing, as Paul tells us...The Holy Spirit's work is to bring to completion what the Father had planned to do through his Son. By this, God is made known to us, and we are taught to trust in him.

Confession of Faith The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried; and the third day He rose again, according to the Scriptures; and ascended into heaven, and is seated on the right hand of the Father and He shall come again, with glory, to judge the quick and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of Life; who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets.

And we believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church;

we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins;
and we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Hymn Holy Spirit
WORDS AND MUSIC BY KEITH GETTY & STUART TOWNEND
© 2006 THANKYOU MUSIC

Holy Spirit, living Breath of God, breathe new life into my willing soul;
Bring the presence of the risen Lord,
to renew my heart and make me whole.
Cause Your Word to come alive in me;
give me faith for what I cannot see.
Give me passion for Your purity;
Holy Spirit breathe new life in me.

Holy Spirit, come abide within;
may Your joy be seen in all I do.
Love enough to cover every sin
in each thought and deed and attitude.
Kindness to the greatest and the least;
gentleness that sows the path of peace.
Turn my strivings into works of grace;
Breath of God, show Christ in all I do.

Holy Spirit, from creation's birth, giving life to all that God has made.
Show Your power once again on Earth,
cause Your church to hunger for Your ways.
Let the fragrance of our prayers arise;
lead us on the road of sacrifice,
That in unity the face of Christ will be clear for all the world to see.

Offering Spirit Song CHOIR
Words & Music by John Wimber

O let the Son of God enfold you with His Spirit and His love, Let Him fill your life and satisfy your soul.
O let Him have the things that hold you and His Spirit, like a dove,
Will descend upon your life and make you whole.

Jesus, O Jesus, come and fill Your lambs.

O come and sing the song of gladness
as your hearts are filled with joy,
Lift your hands in sweet surrender to His name.
O give Him all your tears and sadness,
give Him all your years of pain,
And you'll enter into life in Jesus' name.

*O! Let the nations sing the fame
Of Christ the Lamb who once was slain!
He is risen! He is risen!
Now we await the coming day
When all those raised in Christ will say:
Give him glory! Give him glory! He is risen! He is risen!
Hallelujah!"*

Notes about the service:

Today is Pentecost Sunday, fifty days after Easter, the occasion of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in fulfillment of the promise of Joel 2:28-32 ("I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh..."). In the Old Testament Pentecost was a feast that celebrated the first fruits of the year's harvest (Exodus 23:16; Numbers 28:26). In the New Testament, the fulfillment appears, and the long-expected Day of the Lord has arrived: the powers of the age to come are released; the harvest of the world begins to come in. Christ—crucified, risen and ascended—pours out the Spirit in unrestrained measure and without geographical or ethnic limitation. The gospel promise "is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself" (Acts 2:39). Giving special attention to the person and work of the Holy Spirit in our worship helps us recognize our utter dependence on his presence and work in our lives as disciples of Christ.

The Session has called for a church-wide Day of Prayer and Fasting for Monday, June 20. We are asking for prayer for gospel growth in our congregation:

- to see people converted into disciples of Christ;
- to see believers established, trained and well-equipped to make disciples; and
- to have greater clarity of vision and courage among our church leadership.

There will be times for gathered prayer from 7:00-7:45 a.m., noon-12:45 p.m.; and 7:00-7:45 p.m. Also, you are welcome to pray in the sanctuary at any time during daylight hours.

Elder: Keith Paton (new), Johnny Boswell (return), Hugh Potts, Jr. (return from sabbatical year).

You asked...

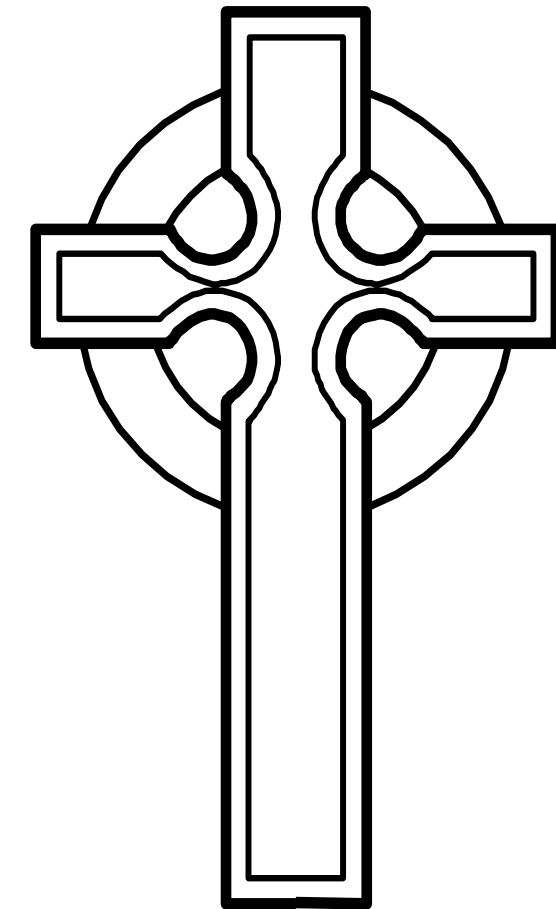

Why did we move 6th graders up to the Youth Group?

Answer: We have decided to do more activities and studies just for Jr. High and just for Sr. High students. Being with others closer to one's age and with similar interests will create closer bonds and, hopefully, improve overall attendance. Since we are having a distinct Jr. High group, the Youth Committee thinks it makes sense to have the ministry correspond to our area schools, where students go to the Junior High School when moving into sixth grade.
