THE LORD'S DAY

10:20 a.m.

The 1 Corinthians 13 call to love is a call to death:

- Being long-suffering means dying to the desire for an untroubled life.
- Having no jealousy means dying to the desire for unshared affection.
- Not boasting means dying to the desire to call attention to our successes.
- Not acting unbecomingly means dying to the desire to express our freedom offensively.
- Not seeking our own way means dying to the dominance of our own preferences.
- Not being easily provoked means dying to the need for no frustrations.
- Not taking account of wrongs means dying to the desire for revenge.
- Bearing all things and enduring all things means dying to the desire to run away from the pain of obedience.

Prelude

Call to Worship Psalm 113

Leader: Praise the LORD!

Praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD!

People: Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and forevermore!

Leader: From the rising of the sun to its setting, the name of the LORD is to be praised!

People: The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens!

Leader: Who is like the LORD our God, who is seated on high, who looks far down on the heavens and the earth?

Reader 1: He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap, to make them sit with princes, with the princes of his people.

Reader 2: He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyous mother of children.

People: Praise the LORD!

Hymn 53 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty LOBE DEN HERREN

Hymn In Christ Alone
KEITH GETTY AND STUART TOWNEND

In Christ alone my hope is found; He is my light, my strength, my song;
This cornerstone, this solid ground,
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease!
My comforter, my all in all—here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone, who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones He came to save.
Till on that cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied;
For every sin on Him was laid—here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground His body lay, Light of the world by darkness slain;
Then bursting forth in glorious day, up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory, sin's curse has lost its grip on me;
For I am His and He is mine—bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death—this is the power of Christ in me;
From life's first cry to final breath, Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man, can ever pluck me from His hand;
Till He returns or calls me home—here in the power of Christ I'll stand.

Response He Is Risen!
TEXT: ERIC SCHUMMACHER, 2004
MUSIC: LASST UNS ERFREUEN

*O! Let the nations sing the fame of Christ the Lamb who once was slain!
He is risen! He is risen!*

*Now we await the coming day when all those raised in Christ will say:
Give him glory! Give him glory! He is risen! He is risen! Hallelujah!"*

Notes about the service:

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty was written by a young German Reformed theologian and pastor of the Dusseldorf Church, Joachim Neander (1650-1680). It is said that Neander personally chose this tune for his hymn, and his words have never appeared in a hymnal paired with any other melody.

In Christ Alone was written in 2001 by British composers Keith Getty and Stuart Townend. On his website Getty shared this letter he recently received from a soldier serving in Iraq:

"I have listened to it almost every night and even tend to sing/reflect on its words on my trips across...It has been an inspiration to me because in each of its verses it reminds me of fundamental principles. It moves immediately to Christ's burden for those who scorned him. Boy, can I relate. We are losing soldiers here every day to people that we are trying to help. To know that Christ purposefully gave his life for us helps me to understand that he knows that soldiers are dying and that he is in control.

*Till on that cross as Jesus died the wrath of God was satisfied -
For every sin on Him was laid; here in the death of Christ I live.*

"No matter how many times I hear that verse, I get chills up my spine. The picture of Christ standing in victory, the image of sin's grip being broken and the promise that I am his and knowing that he, in fact, is mine brings him incredibly close to me.

"As I drive down the highway with my M-16 pointed out the window and my 9MM pistol tucked in my flak jacket pocket, I can tell you that I feel more secure in claiming the promise 'No power of hell, no scheme of man can ever pluck me from his hand till he returns or calls me home' than I do with that rifle and pistol."
