THE LORD'S DAY

10:20 a.m.

If the essence of worship is satisfaction in God, then worship can't be a means to anything else. You simply can't say to God, "I want to be satisfied in you so that I can have something else." Because that would mean that you are not really satisfied in God but in that something else. And that would dishonor God, not worship Him...I am not denying that vital corporate worship might have a hundred good effects on the life of the church. It will, like true affection in marriage, make everything better. My point is that to the degree that we "worship" for these reasons, it ceases to be authentic worship. Keeping satisfaction in God at the center guards us from that tragedy.

Confession of Sin

From 1 John 1:9; Psalm 41:4; Isaiah 55:1-3; Psalm 63:1; Luke 18:13

Leader: Brothers and sisters, God's Word tells us that, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

All: O Lord, be gracious to us; heal our souls, for we have sinned against you!

Leader: The Lord calls: "Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price."

All: We spend our money for that which is not bread and we labor for that which does not satisfy.

Leader: "Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food."

All: We turn our ears away from you. We refuse to come to you. We do not hear, and our souls do not live.

Leader: "Come to me, and I will make with you an everlasting Covenant—my steadfast, sure love."

All: O God, you are my God; earnestly I will seek you.

Leader: Our souls thirst for you.

All: God, be merciful to me, the sinner.

Assurance of Pardon

Isaiah 55:6-7

"Seek the Lord while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon."

CHOIR

Words Fanny J. Crosby & Music by Phoebe Knapp

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
O, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of his spirit, washed in his blood.

This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.

Perfect submission, all is at rest;
I in my Savior am happy and blest,
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with his goodness, lost in his love.
