THE LORD'S DAY

10:20 a.m.

We don't want people simply attending church—we want them adoring God; we don't want them merely coming to a service—we want them entering God's presence.

Sometimes worship may seem a bit formal to some, but formal is not the same thing as dead. If it seems dead, it's probably because you're not worshipping.

~Dr. Ralph Davis, The House That Jesus Built

Confession of Sin

Readers:

Aren't you glad you're not like David: such blazoned sin, how could he?

Aren't you glad you're not like Saul: making up his own rules; what was he thinking?

Aren't you glad you're not like Cain: violence against his own brother?

Aren't you glad you're not like Rebekah: such planned deceit?

Aren't you glad you're not like the Israelites: so easily seduced by idols?

Aren't you glad you're not like Absalom: how could he be so jealous?

Aren't you glad you're not like Elijah: how could he forget God and be so depressed?

Aren't you glad you're not like Nebuchadnezzar: how could he be so obsessed with power?

Aren't you glad you're not like Samson: how could he be so easily deceived?

Aren't you glad you're not like Jonah: how could he run from the Father's call?

Aren't you glad you're not like the Pharisees: so religiously right yet spiritually wrong?

Aren't you glad you're not like Judas: selling the Messiah for some silver?

Aren't you glad you're not like the Corinthians: so much better at division and self-serving than at serving the Lord?

But wait. You are like them, and so am I. There is simply no denying it.

Their stories are a mirror in which we see ourselves.

Congregation:

We too are jealous and easily deceived.

We too are proud and obsessed with power.

We are better at division while we run from God.

We too get angry and are seduced by idols.

In sorrow we must say: We stand with David, and Saul, and Rebekah, and Jonah, and Elijah, and the rest.

In these stories we see ourselves, so that we no longer buy into the lie of our own righteousness,

But instead, run to his mercy, hold onto his unfailing love, and finally rest in his great compassion.

Leader:

Aren't you glad you can step out of the darkness of self-deceit, and admit who you are?

ROBERT GRANT

CHOIR

O worship the King, all glorious above, and gratefully sing,
His wonderful love;

Our Shield and Defender the Ancient of Days

Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, whose robe is the light, whose canopy space!

His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form,

And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?

It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,

It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,

And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain. O worship the King.

PLEASE TAKE A MOMENT TO SIGN THE BLACK REGISTRATION PAD LOCATED AT THE END OF THE PEW AND PASS IT TO OTHERS ON YOUR PEW.
